Body Shaped Shower Sculpture by Bagno Sasso – Aquanatass

Shower Fixtures | Jul-05-10

European bath brand Bagno Sasso is changing the daily ritual of bathing with the introduction of the Aquanatass shower sculpture. Made to match your natural curves, this body-shaped shower sculpture designed by international artist Hubert Rieber is indeed a work of art. These hand-made, limited-edition sculptures are executed in high-end materials like bronze, aluminum and wood, ensuring that their look is as stunning as their feel. Wash yourself in pure luxury with a shower sculpture – a stunning addition to private bathrooms, spas and spa-inspired spaces. "Aquanatass is an exciting product and the slender and sculptured design completes our collection in an ideal way," says Rolf Senti, CEO of Bagno Sasso. For more information on this modern shower, visit Bagno Sasso.
